LEAVING A BEQUEST TO THE JOHNSTON COLLECTION

WHY LEAVE A BEQUEST:

When you leave a bequest to The Johnston Collection you generously extend a way of making a lasting contribution which will enable the Collection to benefit and inform future generations of visitors.

ABOUT BEQUESTS:

Bequests, no matter the size, will help to strengthen the future of The Johnston Collection. Your enduring gift will enable us to continue our quest to offer visitors a unique intimate engagement with European fine and decorative arts from the Georgian and Regency periods.

A Bequest is an instruction in your Will to leave a gift to a specific person or a charitable trust organisation. It is a common misconception that only wealthy people leave money to a charitable trust when they die. The reality is that most bequests are made by ordinary people who want to make a positive difference. Currently, about 30% of Australians have stated that they intend to leave a bequest to a charitable trust organisation.

By making a simple decision to include The Johnston Collection in your Will, you will support the important task of ensuring that William Johnston's gift is protected for future generations.

TYPES OF BEQUESTS:

Bequests can be made in a variety of ways to suit your situation, but there are three main types of bequests:

1. A set amount of money (pecuniary bequest);
2. A residue or a % of the residue of your estate once other bequests have been made (residuary bequest);
3. A specific asset, e.g. property, art works, shares (specific bequest).

For many philanthropic donors, the residuary bequest is the most popular. However, you can decide how you wish to support The Johnston Collection, a treasure in Melbourne's artistic and cultural landscape.
